RE: Student Absent from School: Jordan Christopher Lampkin, 203305

Dear SMCISD Parent or Guardian:

Jordan Christopher Lampkin has now 10 unexcused days of school/class within the last 6 months of school. If your child is in elementary or middle school, this may cause her to be retained in her current grade level or not be ready to perform satisfactorily next year. If your child is in high school, this may cause her to lose course credit. High school students not meeting credit requirements will be retained in their current grade level for next year if they are unable to make up the classwork and/or attendance hours.

Failure to attend school may result in a court petition for parent/guardian and/or student (12-18 years old).

Sincerely,

Kashen Greathouse
Principal
MARCUS ALVAREZ

When Do Absences Become a Problem?
Severe	CHRONIC ABSENCE 18 or more days or parts of days in a school year
Warning	WARNING SIGNS 10 to 17 days or parts of days in a school year
Satisfactory	SATISFACTORY 9 or fewer days or parts of days in a school year

Texas law requires students to attend school regularly and requires parent to make sure their child attends school regularly (Texas Education Code 25.0915). In addition, parents are subject to prosecution (Texas Education Code 25.093) and students to be referred to truancy court (Texas Family Code 65.003(a)) for non-attendance.
